MAY PRODUCTION – TICKETS ON SALE NOW!!!

“Mr Wonderful”

by James Robson

17-19th May at Chinnor Village Hall

This is a humorous and touching play about Norma, and her search for ‘Mr Wonderful’ through dating agency ads. This comes about at the insistence of her bedridden mother, Phoebe.

Tickets are £8.50/£6 and available from Chinnor Community Pavilion, online at www.WeGotTickets or to buy on the door. As always you will be met by a smile and a cold beer or wine at the bar in the foyer.

Our Director Janie Olney has chosen The Anthony Toby Homes Trust to support during the shows so please pop your spare coins in our collection bucket or buy raffle tickets.

MANY HANDS MAKE LIGHT WORK !

Don’t forget set build – 12th/13th May and set break – 20th May. You don’t have to be a carpenter or artist, just bring enthusaism!! We will supply tea and snacks. Any and all help gratefully accepted.

AGM NEWS

What a great turnout we had for the AGM. A great opportunity to catch up with all our members / friends.

No changes on the Committee to announce but remember if you are interested in joining the committee let us know!

Congratulations to all the players who received awards at the AGM – mwa mwa mwa

AUDITIONS FOR OUR AUTUMN PRODUCTION

On the eve of the First World War the young men of Accrington hear Kitchener’s call for a New Army and become the smallest town in England to raise a Pals Volunteer Brigade. When they arrive in France, the brutal reality of the trenches is beyond anything they were prepared for. And back home amongst the women they leave behind – their mothers, wives, daughters, lovers – nothing can ever be the same again.

Peter Whelan's play dramatizes the lives of ordinary people caught up in historical events.

Accrington Pals by Peter Whelan

This is a mixed cast of 5 male and 5 female and a mix of ages. Auditions are 4th and 7th June 8-9pm at the Village Hall (downstairs small hall).
