

**** LAST CHANCE ****

Final chance tonight to Audition for our October production!!!!

7.30pm at Chinnor Village Hall

"At The Sign of the Crippled Harlequin"

A case of mistaken identity leads to tragedy in this engaging thriller. In true Norman Robbins fashion the deepening mystery is rich with shocks and laughs as the play moved to its unexpected close.

Following her wonderful role as Queen of Tarts in Alice, Lynn Boyd-Leslie dons her Directing hat for this production showing in October.

Auditions are relaxed and open to anyone, so why not come along. Contact us through facebook or our website for more information.

*Did you hear about the actor who fell through the floorboards?.....
He was just going through a stage.*

HELP SUPPORT CHINNOR PLAYERS WITH A DONATION

We hope that given the opportunity to support Chinnor Players this way, more of our friends and members will help us. We understand that times are tough at the moment but would ask you to support your local amateur dramatic society with as much or as little as you can.

Donations can be made as many times as you wish during the current year and sent by cash or cheque (payable to Chinnor Players) or by bank transfer.

Our bank details are a/c no. 48938302, sort code 09-01-51. If you are donating by bank transfer, don't forget to add your name as a reference.

THANK YOU FOR YOUR CONTINUED SUPPORT

THANKYOU

To everyone who supported our Quiz Night. We raised funds for our group and had a lot of fun too!

Thanks to Robin and Carolyn !
