CHARITY DONATION

We recently said goodbye to an old member and friend of Chinnor Players, Richard Hayes. During his funeral we were told that he wanted to raise awareness and support for The Halo Trust, a charity committed to the clearing of land mines all around the globe. So we have chosen this charity for our donations made during the Spring play – Veronica’s Room. There will be information available about The Halo Trust and a collection box in the foyer during performances.

PICNIC ‘N’ GAMES

July 23rd from 2pm at the Pavilion Park in Chinnor we are holding a family picnic ‘n’ games event.

All friends and family welcome. Just bring a rug/chair, picnic and games if you have them.

Text Zoe Batt 07969 800202 (or contact her through our facebook page) for more information or just come along!
